

LOOKING BACK

25 YEARS AGO - JULY 10, 1952

St. Martin's Roman Catholic Church, Terrace Bay, was the scene of a wedding at 9 a.m. Saturday July 5th, when Glenna Theresa Coughlin, daughter of Mrs. Emma Coughlin, Port Arthur, became the bride of James Kerr MacDonald, son of Mrs. T.J. Hadley, London, Ontario. Rev. R.J. Roenicke officiated. Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Kennedy, the bride was lovely in a white nylon tulle gown.

STORK CLUB: Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. Cumming on the arrival of a girl, Thursday, July 10, 1952.

A supply of topsoil has been dumped at the front of the Community Church ready to be spread for landscaping. A good turn out of men (with shovels) is anticipated. Action will start at 6:30 p.m. Herb Crisson will direct the operations in his usual efficient manner.
