

METIS ASSOCIATION QUEEN

Georgina Wood, of Terrace Bay, was crowned Queen at the first Beauty Pageant, of the recently formed Metis Association of Schreiber. Cindy Ray and Paulette Perras were judged as princesses in the event.

The judges were Mrs. Dorothy Rummery, Albert Costa and Mrs. Inex McCuaig. Others entering the contest were Maxine Zhola of Minneapolis and Cindy Ray of Schreiber.

The event was held in the Lake Superior High School - Schreiber campus. The contestants first paraded before the full-house, then gave a short speech on their background and ambitions and then changed into beautiful Indian dress. The judges task was difficult.

Leo Tookenay, president of the Association was in charge of the arrangements, assisted by Patricia Moore, vice president and Alice Potvin secretary-treasurer.

The draw for the evening, a canoe, was won by Mrs. Harriet Andrews.
