TERRACE BAY POLICE DEPARTMENT

15 to 20 August 77:

During the period 15 to 20 August, the Terrace Bay Police investigated thirty-two occurrences.

On August 15th, two Break and Enters were investigated - one at the Moose Lodge and the other at the Ontario Hydro tailrace. In both cases a 3" magnum shot gun was used to blow the lock off the door. A quantity of beer was stolen from the Moose Lodge and damage was committed at the Ontario Hydro. Anyone having information about these matters are requested to contact the Terrace Bay Police and the matter will be treated in the strictest confidence. Police are continuing their investigation into these two break and enters.

On August 17th, two men were charged with causing a disturbance by fighting and will appear in criminal court on August 25th.

Also on August 17th, a residence in Terrace Bay was broken into and a juvenile is in custody, charged with this offence.

On August 18th, another residence was broken into and a car belonging to Linda Pelto was stolen. The car was found at Jackfish and a juvenile has been charged with both offences.

On August 19th, a plate glass window was wilfully smashed at Moore's of Terrace Bay. Police are also continuing their investigation into this matter.

Police also laid the following charges - 2 break, enter and theft, 2 theft of auto, 1 fail to wear proper helmet on motorcycle, 1 fail to have an operator's licence, 1 charge of attempted theft, 3 offences under the Liquor Licence Act and 1 for failing to stop at a stop sign.
