

BASTEDO - SUO VOWS EXCHANGED

On a beautiful, sunny day, in an outdoor garden wedding, Darlene Gayle Suo became the bride of William F. Bastedo, on August 6th, 1977. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was Rev. John Nelson of Emanuel Lutheran, Nipigon. The Bride was given in marriage by her brother Garry Lloyd Suo of Toronto. The Bride is the daughter of Mrs. Aldonna Josus of Terrace Bay and the Groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D.E. Bastedo of Dartmouth, Nova Scotia.

The Bride was radiant in a white floor length gown with flowing train and shoulder cape edged in chantilly lace. The off the face, shoulder length veil was fashioned of matching lace and she carried a cascading bouquet of organza sweetheart roses with white stephanatis and baby's breath.

The Bride's attendants were maid of honour, sister Leslie Josus and bridesmaid Leslie Thompson of Sudbury. They both wore identical silk jersey gowns of sunset yellow with petal sleeves and carried nosegay's of organza sweetheart roses and feathered white mums.

Attending the Groom was best man Gregory Coldwell of St. John's Nfld. and Terry O'Neill of Terrace Bay.

The Bridal party gowns were made by the Bride's mother with the assistance of her daughter Leslie, who also looked after the decorations of house, hall and cars.

Following the ceremony, refreshments were served outdoors, while numerous snapshots were taken in the garden and at the Aguasabon Gorge.

For the wedding the Bride's mother wore a sea green silk jersey gown with floral chiffon cape accented with yellow roses corsage. The Groom's mother was charming in a pink crepe gown with matching long-sleeved jacket enhanced by a corsage of sweetheart roses.

Garry Suo acted as master of ceremonies introducing the head table and reading telegrams and phone calls from friends who could not attend. A toast to the Bride was proposed by Mr. Verle Thompson with humorous events in her teenage life. The guest book was circulated by Miss Jane Colby Hara of Terrace.

Serving at the dinner was Mrs. Rhea Beaulieu and Mrs. Joyce Mercier. Assisting at the bar were Mr. Clem Lemay and Mrs. Elaine Zwir. The music was by Partie Sound.

The 3-tiered wedding cake was decorated in white with yellow roses. It was cut and served by the Bride and Groom during the reception.

On their honeymoon trip to the Maritime Provinces, the Bride wore a fashionable grey-checked three piece pant suit with matching blouse and neckerchief.

Prior to the wedding the Bride was feted at showers held in her honour by Mrs. Thelma Northcott, Mrs. Audrey Hara, Mrs. Steffie Dorman and Mrs. Bonnie O'Neill. The Groom was honoured at a stag held by Mr. Gregory Coldwell and Mr. Mike Brown and attended by his co-workers and friends.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. D.E. Bastedo with daughters Judy and Carolyn Adamski of Dartmouth, N.S.; Mr. Robert Tuomi of Edmonton; Miss Susan Graham of Toronto; Miss Debbie Weaver of Elliott Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Einats and Joey, Mr. and Mrs. Art Jung, Mrs. Marg Aho, Mr. R. Brown, Mr. Rick Wyle and Mrs. Helen Howe of Thunder Bay.

The Bride and Groom are residing at 34B Cavanaugh Crescent, Terrace Bay.
