

SCHREIBER PUBLIC LIBRARY BOARD MEETING:

The trustees of the Schreiber Public Library Board, at their regular monthly meeting, made arrangements to remove the remaining plywood shelves and replace them with the newly arrived Lundea units. This completes the project to modernize the library which was started three years ago.

Plans were made to continue the study of other Regional libraries' statements of policies in order to complete and print the Schreiber Public Library's objectives.

The Youth Groups 'Memorabilia 1974' gave the Board written permission to add to the History of Schreiber Book - "Journey to Yesterday". The original context will not be changed and the new editions will be ready in the spring of 1978.

The Canadian Wildlife Membership was renewed and thirteen law booklets were ordered from the Toronto Community Law Program.

Mrs. Eva Gordon, the librarian, will attend the Regional Conventional in Thunder Bay on September 23rd & 24th.

CHIMO CLUB RESUMES REGULAR MEETINGS

The Chimo Club resumed its regular meetings on September 16th, with Helen Wallace presiding. She welcomed Mrs. Etta Gray, the new club custodian and the many members attending.

The minutes and regular reports were adopted as read. Each member is asked to donate two or three items to the Christmas bazaar.

A letter was received notifying the Club of the Northwestern Ontario Alliance convention being held in Thunder Bay on October 4 & 5th.

A note of thanks was received from Birchwood Terrace for dinner and visit there by the Club during the summer.

Mrs. Wallace thanked four members for cash donations to the club. A Home Bingo was planned to start on Friday, September 23rd. Mrs. Wallace also announced Noreen Johnston, of Kakabeka Falls has offered to demonstrate the use of cosmetics "Fashion 220" in the Club on September 25th, at 2 p.m.

Birthday greetings were sung to several members.

Bern Jacomb, Winnie Clemens and Beth Macadam were named as a nominating committee.

Following the October meeting a penny auction will be enjoyed and a masquerade party.

After the meeting bridge and whist were played, winners being - Bridge, high - Helen Wallace; low - Etta Gray. Whist - high - Dora Weaver, low - Eileen Rouble.

A potluck lunch ended the evening.

IN MEMORIAM:

In loving memory of my dear father, David Huard, who passed away on September 30, 1976.

It was a year ago to-day
God took my dear father away
Although you went away Dad, and left me behind,

I always have you in my mind
Dear Dad, I love you so
and miss you very much, you know
I never said good-bye to you
Perhaps, it's just as well
For I never could say good-bye
To one I loved so well.

Lovingly remembered by his daughter, Mary.
