A lively show was presented by the high school kangaroo court this year with some fifty-eight freshmen sentenced for imaginary crimes, some of the accusations bringing roars of laughter from the assembled student body. Hilarious moments were when Susan Dimmery, sentenced to be be-headed lying her head on a chopping block with axe hovering over her, let out a horrifying scream as the curtain was drawn. D'Arcy Furlonger made an impressive "Magoo" and being ordered to shoot another prisoner, shot at his fellow-jurors and audience, before falling into a tub of water.
