

SCHOOL NEWS: THEATRE HOUR: From pg. 2 ...

Brecht, who directed the Berliner Ensemble until his death in 1956, is one of the best-known playwrights of our age. He has written such well-known plays as The Threepenny Opera, The Caucasian Chalk Circle and Mother Courage.

Brecht is famous for his innovations in style. He has made popular such terms as alienation effect, political theatre and epic theatre.

He is a writer of black comedy and of Marxist didacticism. His plays usually show people as aggressive beasts of prey or as their suffering victims. The didactic elements of his plays tend to be harsh satires of what Brecht considers to be the abuses and perversities of the capitalist system.

The Exception and The Rule was presented by the Theatre Hour Company, a talented acting group based in Toronto.
