25 YEARS AGO - NOVEMBER 20, 1952

Christening our three newest business establishments L & L Meat Market, Waghorn's Pharmacy and Jessop's Drug Sundries was a radical break with tradition. We were beginning to think that the inclusion of Terrace Bay in the title of a business was governed by law, as witness the following: Terrace Bay Enterprises, Terrace Motors, Terrace Groceteria, Terrace Bay Cabinet & Repair Shop, Terrace Bay Laundry, Terrace Bay Radio Service, Terrace Taxi, Terrace Bay Shoe Repair, Hotel Terrace, Terrace Bay Private Hospital, and the Terrace Bay News.

20 YEARS AGO - NOVEMBER 21, 1957

Friday November 22nd will mark the end of almost ten years residence in Terrace Bay for our former Mill Manager, Mr. J.C. (Joe) Wig and his family. Mr. Wig was named Mill Manager of the Irving Pulp and Paper Company Limited, St. John New Brunswick, effective November 1st.
