5 YEARS AGO - JANUARY 17, 1973

The traditional New Year's Day Smorgasbord Dinner at the Terrace Bay Motor Hotel held overtones of sadness this year, since it was the last function to be held there. Ever since its inception, it has been one of the social highlights of the festive season and an official welcome to New Year's. It was a tradition for many of the families in Terrace Bay and the surrounding area who looked forward to the day when Chef Heinz Schmiedchen and his cohorts, Leon Theriault, Marian Pluta & June Schmitt, prepared a feast fit for a gourmet's taste. But it signalled too, the end of an era, since Kimberly-Clark so generously donated the Hotel to the Department of Homes for the Aged, to be converted into a Senior Citizen's Residence, the doors have been closed to the public.

1 YEAR AGO - JANUARY 19, 1977
