NDWT CO! presents

WACOUSTA!

a play by James Reaney

a presentation of the Touring Offices of the Canada Council and of the Ontario Arts Council

The NDWT Company comes to Terrace Bay with WACOUSTA! James Reaney's exciting stage adaptation of major John Richardson's internationally renowned 1832 Canadian Gothic Novel.

Sponsored by Terrace Bay Recreation Association WACOUSTA! will play at the Terrace Bay High School on Monday, March 13th, at 8:30 p.m. The setting for WACOUSTA'S adventures is the siege of Fort Detroit in 1763. Chief Pontiac and his Ottawa army have surrounded the Fort, last of the British strongholds in North America. While the chiefs and the colonels talk peace inside the fort, the tribe outside is roused to battle by WACOUSTA, the infamous, pale-skinned AND monstrous warrior. WACOUSTA! is a tale of love, hate, vengeance and war which will appeal to ... and entertain... both young and old.

Awards and praise were lavished on James Reaney's previous plays, THE DONNELLY TRILOGY, BALDOON, and THE DISMISSAL. WACOUSTA, over a year in the making, will prove a stellar addition to this growing list of successes. WACOUSTA! in Terrace Bay is part of the NDWT'Co.'s six week Ontario wide tour.
