DO YOU LIKE TO SING?

Well we would like to start again on March 27th in the large meeting room of the Recreation Centre, at 8:00 p.m. We invite new and old members to attend. All new singers please come and enjoy singing. Any ladies who would like to attend are also welcome.

TERRACE BAY POLICE DEPARTMENT

06 MARCH 1978

During the period of March 1st to 5th, members of the Terrace Bay Police Force were called upon to investigate fourteen occurrences.

On March 1st, four persons were charged with not having their vehicle licence plates validated with the 1978 sticker.

On March 2nd, one complaint of wilful damage was investigated and charges are pending in this case. One complaint of common assault is presently under investigation. Also on this date, Police were called upon to investigate a disturbance at a local residence.

On March 3rd, two motorists were charged with speeding in the Township. Three charges of speeding were also laid on March 4th. Police are presently investigating a theft of a pair of expensive figure skates, taken from the Recreation Centre. One charge of mischief was laid after a glass door at the High School was kicked out.

March 5th, saw police lay one charge of speeding and investigated two motor vehicle accidents with damages in excess of $4,000.00.

A directive has been received from the Ontario Police Commission advising all police forces to strictly enforce the seat belt legislation.
