

SCHREIBER WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

The World Day of Prayer was held in Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church in Schreiber with over fifty women attending. Mrs. Teresa Stortini was the leader and Mrs. Georgina Cebrario the speaker.

The theme this year was Helping Our Fellow Man and Mrs. Cebrario chose to speak on Retardation - the new understanding and sympathy developing for those afflicted, and the hope now offered to both the victim and his family. She dwelt on the work and aims of the local Association for the Mentally Retarded and the public's support of their cause.

Others taking part in the service included Hazel Bailey, Rena Ross, Erlise Stevens, Myrtle Gordon, Marjory Morrill, Liz Prescotte, Myra Holmes, and Sharon Lamoureux (organist).

Following the service a social hour was enjoyed in the Parish centre with tea served by Therese Martin and Armella Webb.
