Aguasabon District began Scout-Guide week with the 24th Guide and Brownie Banquet. The highlight of the banquet occurred when Ranger Guider Cathy Geldreich presented Ranger Tracy Stachiw with the Canada Cord - the highest award of the Girl Guide programme. Tracy received a Ranger ring from the Ranger-Cadet Co., a Canada Cord pin from the Guide Co. and a rose from each of the Brownie packs.

A presentation of a Guide and Brownie teaspoon to Mrs. Bernice Pytyck for many years of service to the Local Association to Guides and Brownies was made by Mrs. Vicki Kostuk.

Brownie Pack 1 sang an action song "This Little Brownie". Pack 2 portrayed a mischievous Brownie in "Do's and Don't's of an Outdoor Adventure", the Guides enacted a play as part of their history badge "How Girl Guides Began", and the Rangers and Cadets led the audience in two lively numbers.
