STOKES HONOURED

Schreiber was the site of a gathering of New Democrats from across Northern Ontario Saturday. The Annual Meeting of the Lake Nipigon NDP was held in the afternoon with federal candidate Bob Fortin and MPP Jack Stokes, the Speaker of the Legislature addressing the assembled delegates. Mr. Fortin attacked the Trudeau government for its handling of unemployment, the economy, and the National debt. Mr. Stokes spoke to the delegates about his work over the last year and the way in which he is trying to conduct himself both as Lake Nipigon's MPP and as Speaker. The outgoing executive spoke of the work done in the Provincial Election in which Jack Stokes was successfully re-elected and of the ground work laid for the coming federal election which is rapidly shaping up to be just as successful. The incoming executive is headed by President Harry Huskins, of Terrace Bay; Vice President Ted Nyman of Nipigon; Vice President Bill Gerow of Schreiber and Secretary Elizabeth Perrault of Schreiber.

A dinner attended by the members of the Riding Association and guests followed the Annual Meeting. In a light hearted evening session fellow MPP's, Members of the support staff from Queen's Park, labour leaders and old friends recalled incidents from Jack's past. MPP's Jim Foulds, Marion Bryden, Pat Lawlor and Ian Deans conveyed messages of respect and admiration for Jack and support for the work he is doing as a Northern Member and as Speaker. Mr. Stokes was presented with a scroll signed by all the members of the NDP caucus, a card from the support staff of the legislature, and a slate which has been part of the legislative building from its construction and which unfortunately came down in this winter's storms.
