COUNCIL QUOTES: Continued

New salary and wage rates for 1978 were approved, as was a by-law amendment which will provide for payment of overtime to non-department head salary staff rather than time off in lieu.

A by-law has also been passed to ensure that use of municipal equipment will not be used by private establishments except in emergency situations when no other contractor is available, and then only for a set time period.

Fire Chief Ed Stachiw will attend the E.M.O. meeting in Arnprior May 14 - 17th, providing space is available.

Reeve Brassard was nominated vice-chairman for the Thunder Bay District at the annual E.M.O. meeting on April 1st.

STOKES HONOURED: Continued

A Public Reception followed the Dinner and community leaders, friends and supporters from across the Riding and Northern Ontario showed up to thank Jack for the time, the effort and the energy he has put into helping all of us. A unique piece of Eskimo sculpture purchased by a public subscription taken up in the communities of Schreiber and Terrace Bay was presented to Mr. Stokes and his wife Helen as a token of appreciation from the two towns.

SCHOOL NEWS

LAKE SUPERIOR PUBLIC SCHOOL HOSTS ORAL COMMUNICATIONS COMPETITION:

On Wednesday 1978 04 12, students from the Terrace Bay campus and the Schreiber campus of the Lake Superior Public School met in the Terrace Bay gymnasium to select four finalists to travel to the divisional "Oral Communications" competition in Marathon 1978 04 19.

Representing Schreiber were James Miller and Sheryl Holmes from the intermediate division and Kara Klassen and Tammy Walton from the junior division. Representing the Terrace Bay intermediates were Karen Anderson and Rhonda Miller with Eric Samp and Susan Mathew representing the juniors.

Topics ranged from the joys of a pet collie to the origins of names. Judging was very close, particularly in the junior division, nevertheless a decision was finally reached. Representing the Lake Superior Public School in Marathon will be; Karen Anderson, Rhonda Miller, Tammy Walton and Eric Samp. Congratulations to all of the contestants and in particular the winners for a job well done.

The Lake Superior Public School also wishes to thank the judges for the competition; Mr. Brain Peters, Rev. Bigelow and Mr. Ted Hanley.
