

POLICE REPORT: From pg. 11 ...

4 speeding charges, 1 no operator's licence, 2 no valid plate on vehicle, and 1 charge of careless driving.

Two motor vehicle collisions were also investigated with damages in excess of $2,000.00 resulting.

Two persons were charged under the Liquor Licence Act, one for having liquor readily available in a vehicle and the other for public intoxication.

May 14 to 20 has been declared National Police Week and the Terrace Bay Police Force invites interested persons and groups to tour our facilities during the days of police week. Get to know us better, drop in for a chat and view our displays.

JOE RUZYSKI HONOURED ON RETIREMENT

Joe Ruzyski was honoured on his retirement with a party on April 22nd at the Masonic Hall. The event was arranged by fellow workers in the electrical and installation department at the mill.

Joe has worked for Kimberly-Clark in the electrical department for twenty-nine years. Highlights of the presentations included three originals - a rocking chair, a violin and a beautiful painting of the Bay by Mrs. Pedersen.

Joe plans to continue living in Terrace Bay at his home at 222 Kenogami Road.
