ROSSPORT FIRE BRIGADE

Wednesday evening, Roger Alty chaired a meeting of the local fire fighter volunteers. Twenty-five residents were present. The secretary, Mary Burnett read the minutes of the previous meeting and Leona Leisander presented a very encouraging financial report. To date donations amounting to $145.00 have been received and letters have gone out to property owners here.

Mary Burnett gave a report on the Ucano meeting held at Thunder Bay on the 15th of the month.

Dave and Agnes Iddison are the delegates to take training at the Fire Fighters training school in Thunder Bay this week and a sum of money was voted them for expenses.

The aims and purposes of this fire brigade were discussed, with the following being agreed on: 1 - to establish a fire fighting group in the village; 2 - to establish training courses; 3 - to learn structural fire fighting methods and procedures; 4 - to raise funds for equipment, maintenance of same and training costs.
