

YOUTH INCORPORATED

A dynamic new organization has been formed in the community by a group of ambitious young people who call themselves "Youth Incorporated". Their goal is to provide interesting and creative activities for youth, as opposed to "just hanging around the Rec Centre".

Their slogan is "we're here for the betterment of youth, and to that end they have been planning various activities such as disco dances, fastball, roller skating, a rock-a-thon and a car wash. They are presently sponsoring the course in disco dancing which has gotten off with a bang.

Youth Inc. would like to hold regular weekly dances and are still in search of adequate facilities. At present, dances are held in the Rec Centres' Conference Room, but space is very limited.

Proceeds from the various functions will go toward Youth Incorporated projects which will benefit the community. Any suggestions for projects and activities from the public are most welcome.

The Recreation Committee is totally behind this venture, although Youth Inc. is a self-supporting group.

Five dollars a year is the membership fee, which entitles members to cut rates for all functions. Present members are: President, Rob St. Louis; Vice President, Sam Mathews; Secretary Janice Liebrock; Treasurer, Steve Barnett; Advisors Karen Leary, Jamie McEwen and Ruth Falzetta; Mark Hara, Mary Pluta, Carole Ann Osmar, Rick St. Louis and Georgina Wood.
