Ontario has reformed its family laws.

We think you and your family should know about them.

The purpose of the new legislation is to strengthen and encourage the role of the family by bringing outmoded and unfair laws into line with modern family life. Among the subjects covered are:

- Matrimonial property – the sharing of family assets, including the family home.
- Support – the mutual obligation of spouses to support themselves and their children.
- Domestic contracts – what they are and how to make them.
- Abolition of the status of illegitimacy – equal rights for all children.

- Marriages – age of consent and civil ceremonies.
- Succession rights – the rules for making wills and rights of surviving family members.

The new laws substantially change the rights and responsibilities of every person in Ontario.

The Ministry of the Attorney General has prepared an easy-to-understand pamphlet which summarizes the new law. For your free copy, write to:
