 eau and Mary Winters.

The Chinese Cooking
 Course which was held in the Community Church basement for four consecutive afternoons proved to be a great success.

Instructed by Mr.
 Ling Lee of Confederation College, the course introduced the twenty-two students to various Chinese cooking skills including the use of a wok and the proper preparation of rice. Such delectable recipes as "Sub Gum Chop Suey" were prepared and participants were able to sample the results of their achievements.

THE FARMER IN THE DELL

Lake Superior Public School, Terrace Bay Campus, staged a very enjoyable musical operetta, "The Farmer in the Dell" on the evening of June 7th. During the hour long production, several colorful characters made their appearance on the country-style stage setting. Cast members included Old MacDonald, Little Bo Peep, Mary Quite Contrary, crows, roosters, flowers, scarecrows, pretty maids, farm hands, and even bugs in rugs and an egg! Mrs. J. McGee, director and pianist, and the students of grades two, three and four are to be congratulated for a very entertaining performance. After the show, Mrs.
 McGee received a special presentation from the class.

CROWN COTTAGE LOT SALE

Details of government plans to sell Crown cottage lots to the public were announced in the Ontario Legislature today by Natural Resources Minister Frank S. Miller.

This program for Crown cottage lots in the north was first announced in the Speech from the Throne in February.

Present holders of cottage lot leases, except those under the government's remote cottage program, will be given the option of purchasing their lots.

Conversion to sale from lease will be at the appraised market value of the land at the time of conversion based on a comparable unimproved lot.

To be eligible to purchase or lease a Crown cottage lot during the first year following registration of a subdivision, an applicant must be resident in Ontario either as a Canadian citizen or landed immigrant.

During the second year after registration, other Canadian citizens or landed immigrants living outside the province, along with residents of Ontario, are eligible to purchase or lease any cottage lots that remain ungranted
