What are "big brothers"

They are dedicated, volunteer-members of Big Brothers of Canada who provide personal guidance and a good example to boys in their formative years. Above all, they share three of the simplest things in life that any man can offer a boy – confidence, friendship and trust. Sometimes a boy simply needs a man to talk to. A man who is willing to listen.

There are 135 local Big Brother agencies across Canada working with full-time professional counsellors to "match" little brothers with big brothers.
