TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

Eddie is an appealing child with blonde hair and brown eyes. Anglo-Saxon in descent and just turned five, he is in good health though small for his age.

Eddie is silent and aloof with strange adults, but immediately friendly with children. Once he feels secure he is a charming fellow with a merry sense of humor.

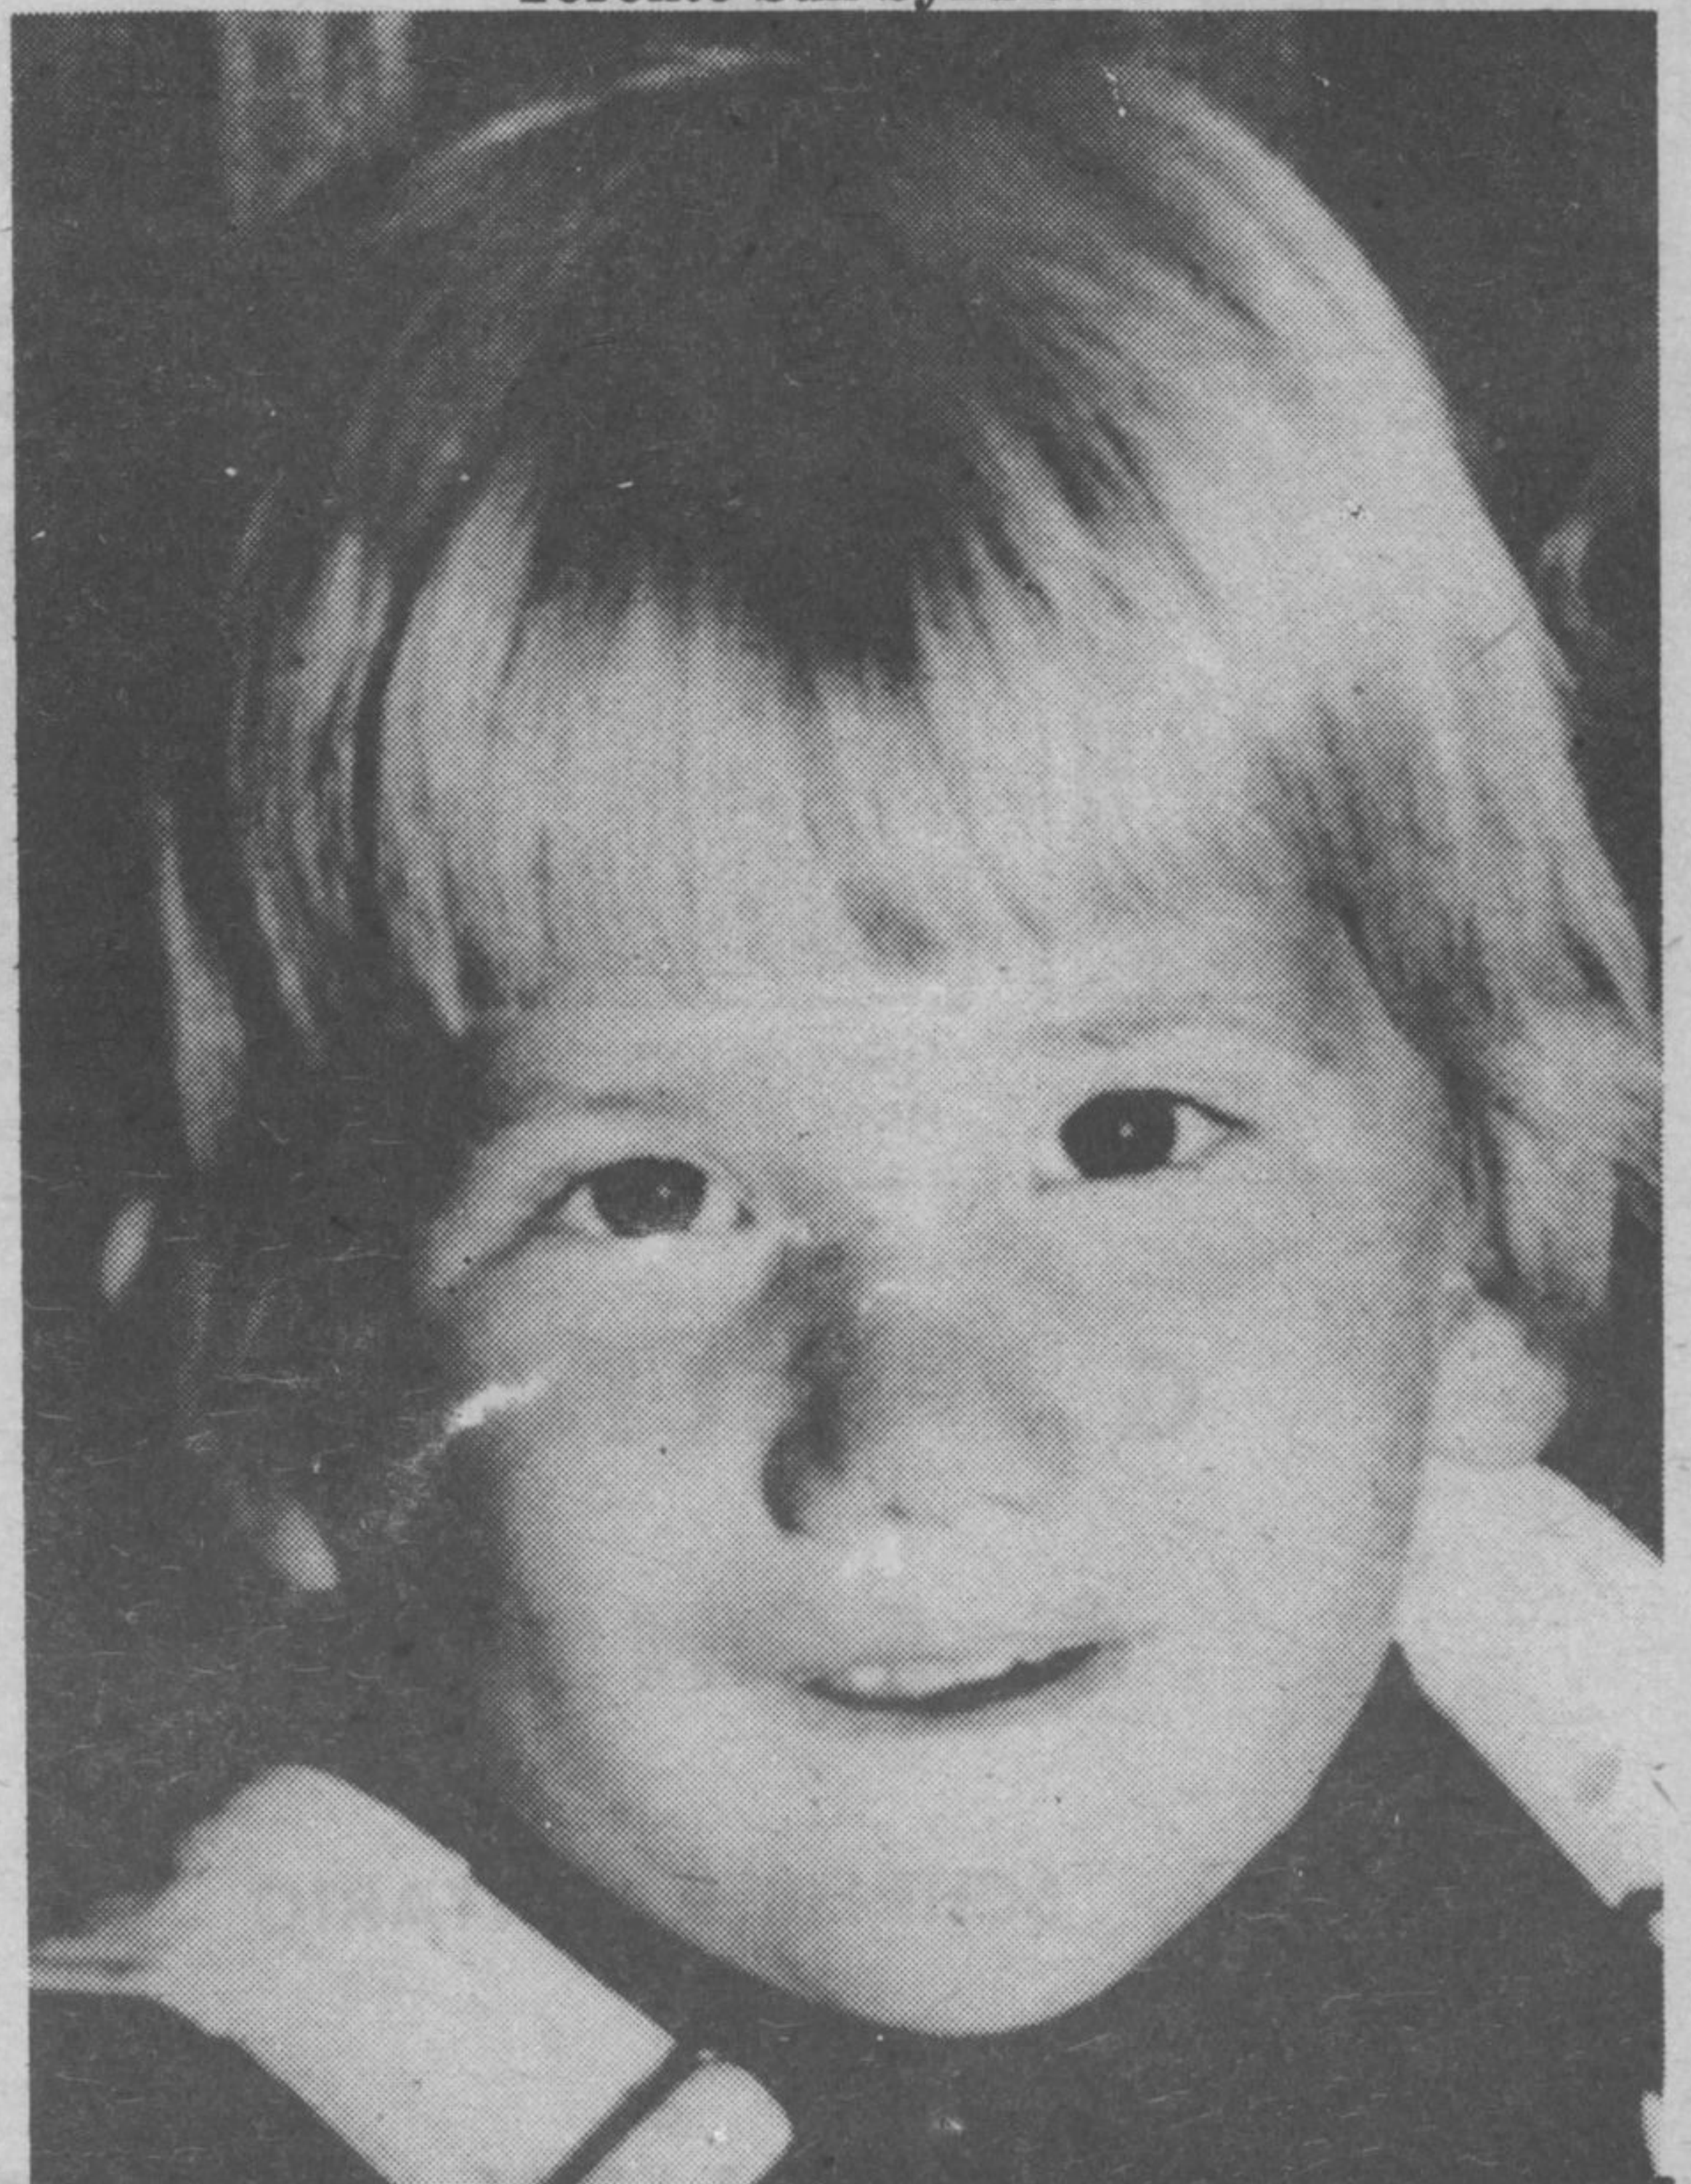

It is difficult to assess Eddie's mental ability because he is slow in speech and may require speech therapy. In other areas he appears to be at least average. He enjoys children's television shows and loves picture books and listening to stories.

Eddie will be a lovable son for warm, gentle parents who can give him time to trust them and who rely on quiet firmness for discipline. Eddie should be the youngest in his adopting family with perhaps two or three older brothers or sisters.

To inquire about adopting Eddie, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. In your letter tell something of your present family and your way of life.

For general adoption information contact your local Children's Aid Society.
