DOUBLE RING CEREMONY UNITES COUPLE

St. Berchman's Roman Catholic Church at Rosspport was the scene for a pretty summer wedding when Rev. Father Meyer united in marriage Anna Bain and Albert Ray on Saturday, June 24th at 2.30 p.m. in a double ring ceremony.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N.H. Bain and the groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Ray, all of Rosspport.

Blue and white carnations and fern decorated the altar and sanctuary with the guest pews marked by white and blue ribbons.

Miss Cathy Gerow presided at the organ and the soloist was Mrs. Patricia Campbell.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a white jacquard polyester satin gown on princess lines and long sleeves with a round neckline. Her floor length veil of silk net had a long train and was gathered on the head with clusters of white flowers and seed pearls. She wore white kid sandals and carried a cascade bouquet of red roses tied with white satin ribbon and wore the groom's gift of a strand of pearls. The bride's gown was made by her aunt, Mrs. Gwen Gerow.

Viana Bain, sister of the bride was Matron of Honour and Evelyn Schroeder was the Bride's maid. Both of the attendants wore floor length gowns of light blue inter locked polyester knit with sweetheart neckline and a short sleeved jacket tied at the waistline. White low heeled sandals and blue wedding hats of olefin fibres trimmed with white bows on the side and carried nosegays of white and blue daisies tied with white satin bows. They wore the bride's gift of gold locket with their birthstones in it.

The bride's youngest sister, Lisa was the flower girl. She carried white basket of white and blue daisies. Lisa followed the bridal color theme and wore a floor length gown of blue polyester voile trimmed with white lace and white shoes. Earl Gerow was the ring bearer - cousin of the bride. He carried a white pillow made of the same material as the bride's gown.

Brian Ray, brother of the groom and Wilbour Bain, brother of the bride attended the groom. The ushers were Darcy and Narcisus Bain, brothers of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a long sleeved red and gray brocaded polyester satin gown, floor length on princess lines complemented with gold chair jewelry and headband matching the dress and white shoes and wore a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother chose a aquamarine blue long sleeved and floor length gown made of silk jersey on princess lines and wore silver and blue jewelry and white shoes and white carnation corsage.

A reception was held in the community hall with Madames Jack Campbell and Lester Legault and Miss Devona Leisander hostesses. The hall was decorated with white and blue streamers and white bells. The head table was centered with a centerpiece of blue and white carnations and white candles. Brian Ray proposed the toast to the happy couple and the groom responded. Dancing followed with music by Glen Martin, Joe Esquega, Patsey Campbell and Dave Mushquash on the piano, violin and guitars. Mr. and Mrs. Ray will reside in Rosspport. Before their marriage the bride was entertained by a community shower and the groom at a stag party.

Included in the out of town guests were Mr. & Mrs. Paddy Risk, Mr. & Mrs. Joe Tookeney, Mr. & Mrs. S. Bouchard, Mr. & Mrs. L. Berube, Mr. & Mrs. John Ray, Mr. & Mrs. Ron Lanigan, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Risk & daughters, Mr. & Mrs. Frank Esquega Misses Paulette & Denise Auger of Nipigon; Mr. & Mrs. John Peebles, Mr. & Mrs. John Clement & Family of Balmertown; Mrs. M.
