

CON. COLLEGE PROGRAMMES - cont'd from page 14
this fall. Accounting AC-204, Child Psychology, Oil Painting, 2 Craft Programmes, 1 French Language Programme, Photography, Investment and Taxation. Further information will be available at the proposed times of these courses.

Anyone wishing to have programmes other than the above-mentioned are asked to call the Recreation Office so that we may contact Confederation College to see if they could possibly be obtained.

NOTES FROM YOUR HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

This year adult membership numbered 307 and junior membership 47.

Junior gardeners were provided with a selection of seeds
and their gardens will be inspected each month.

Rose growers may be interested to hear that our Society is now a member of the Canadian Rose Society with access to advice and information for them.

The Home Beautification Contest will again be sponsored by Kimberly Clark with a generous donation of prize money.
Homes are judged on overall appearance of the entire property
as well as arrangement of shrubs, flowers and vegetable gardens. Judging will be completed by August 14th.

This year the members premium consisted of gladioli bulbs.
A thank you from the Committee to all willing canvassers who sold memberships.
