Ken Hanley shot a 148 to win low gross in the men's open golf tournament at the Aguasabon Golf Course and then went on to shoot a low gross 155 at the Marathon tournament.

At the Terrace Bay tournament, Bill Stachiw, also of Terrace Bay, was runner-up in over-all gross honours with a 152.

The Molson award was presented to Hanley by Dave Littleford of Molsons, sponsor for the event. Mike Moore, tournament chairman, was in charge of trophy presentations.

In the A group, Bill Stachiw won low gross honours while Jack Palmer of Thunder Bay was second with 156.

J. Campbell of Terrace Bay was low net winner over-all.

Peter Dashkewytch of Terrace Bay won low net at 141 in the A group. Runner-up was J. Farkas of Thunder Bay with 144.

In the B group, Kerry Murphy of Thunder Bay won low gross with 162 while John Corrigan of Terrace Bay was runner-up with 165.

Low net in B group was won by Martti Saarimaki of Geraldton with 139 and runner-up was Grant Solly of Terrace Bay.

In C group, first and second low gross went to Terrace Bay golfers, Terry O'Neill with 182 and Jim Corrigan with 183.

Low net winner and runner-up in C were Joe Papineau of Terrace Bay and Mark Gowan of Thunder Bay.

There were 118 competitors in the tournament.

TV America

It is estimated that there are about 130 million television sets in the homes of Americans — more than the number of automobiles, bathtubs, washing machines or refrigerators in use.
