

Father Meyer Honoured At Reception

Over two hundred parishioners and friends from all denominations gathered at the Schreiber Town Hall, Sunday afternoon, August 27th to bid farewell to the Parish priest of Holy Angels and St. Berchman's Roman Catholic Churches, Rev. Father F.J. Meyer. He leaves this week to take over the Holy Family Church in Thunder Bay after seven and one half years in our parishes.

Assisting the priest meet his many friends were Mrs. Loretta McParland, past president of the C.W.L. and Eddie Borutski, President of the parish council.

The hall was decorated with light blue and yellow streamers and the tea tables centered with rose bowls. The C.W.L. supplied the luncheon under the convenership of the president Mrs. Phyllis McParland. Mrs. Mary Valentino, Rita McGrath, Mrs. Maronese, Mrs. Maureen Reddins and Mrs. Buso assisted.

Members of the young girls' club served the tables. They were: Mary and Erin Bourke, Virginia, Mary and Andre Stortini, Anna Racioppi, Tina Reddins, Brenda and Tina Cebrario. Maureen McParland had charge of the guest book.

Father Meyer will be greatly missed in the parish as he was an encouraging, kind and helpful leader of the parishes. He is a very independent man and never hesitated to cut grass, shovel snow and quite truthfully he was against anyone else doing those chores as he liked to keep busy. He was never stuck when repairs had to be made to machinery, electrical appliances and even added carpentry to his skills. Father Meyer did engraving and belonged to the Ham Radio operators,, was involved in the Nipigon Power Squadron, served as the Padre of the Schreiber Canadian Legion and was the Executive Director of the Parish Council. Father Meyer's many accomplishments were unreal. He even baked his own bread and did the laundering of the church linens.

With Ed Borutski as chairman, many gifts were presented to Father Meyer by the church organizations and individual gifts. Mr. Borutski expressed the feelings of the parishioners in their regret in the loss of an understanding priest and a friend to all.

Mrs. Greengrass, one of the oldest parishioners of Schreiber, presented Father Meyer with a purse of money while Mike McGrath presented an oil painting of Holy Angels Church painted by Mrs. Betty Huard. Mr. McGrath spoke on Father Meyer's many accomplishments as well as his roll as the priest of the church.

Kris Borutski on behalf of the altar boys, presented him with a picture of the altar boys and a pen and paper weight desk set.
