

FATHER MEYER HONOURED AT RECEPTION: From page 15

Borden Ross of the Canadian Legion presented Father with a cheque for fifty dollars.

Rev. Sister Marvel Belfry, principal of Holy Angels School spoke a few words in Father's relations with the school and stated that the staff and school would be having their presentations later in the fall. Miss Liz Dobush spoke on behalf of the St. Martin Parish of Terrace Bay. Jack Stokes M.P.P. with mixed emotions spoke on the great loss of Holy Angels parish with Father Meyer leaving the community but would be another parishes gain.

Wm. Schelling made a presentation of a cheque from St. Berchman's Altar Society of Rosspport and an individual gift as well. Mrs. Anne Todesco also presented him a personal gift.

When Father Meyer was expressing his appreciation of the entertainment and presentations made him and his happy memories of his stay here he was overwhelmed with applause. He felt reluctant in leaving this community and his parish and friends but must go on to other communities to carry on his work as a parish priest. He was overcome with emotions but said that he wasn't saying good-bye but so long till we meet again.
