Take A What?

"I thought you were going to visit your red-haired friend at her apartment tonight?"

"I did."

"How come you're home so early?"

"We had dinner and talked awhile and then she turned out the lights."

"And you left?"

"I can take a hint."

Who's Trailing?

Robert, the private investigator, was giving his vivacious client a report. "I trailed your husband into five saloons and then to an apartment," he said.

"Great," exclaimed the worrisome wife, "what was going on at that apartment?"

"As close as I could tell," Robert replied, "your husband was trailing you!"

That's Gratitude?

"You're a cheat!" the client in search of justice told his lawyer. "You've kept me in suspense for months and got rich on my case alone."

"That's gratitude," replied the barrister. "And you say all this right after I named my new yacht in your honor."
