HOSPITAL NOTES

The Board of Directors of The McCausland Hospital hope, through a regular series of newspaper articles, to explain to the citizens they serve the many and diverse functions of the hospital today.

Almost every citizen, at some time in his or her life sees the inside of a hospital as a patient. In an average year, it is probable that one out of every six of your friends or acquaintances, or, to put it another way, someone from every third or fourth house along any street, required admission to hospital. Still more people required and received some other type of hospital service during the year. The hospital, therefore, is the focal point for a wide variety of skills and equipment which it mobilizes and co-ordinates and which are directed to a common goal, the restoration of health and the prevention of illness.

Every public hospital in Ontario has a Board of Directors, or trustees, who are legally responsible for the management of the hospital.

The McCausland Hospital Board is made up of twelve members, eight of whom are volunteers elected from the membership of the hospital corporation at the hospital's annual meeting. There are four ex-officio members of the Board: a representative of the medical staff, a representative from each municipality of Terrace Bay, Schreiber and Pays Plat, and a representative of The McCausland Hospital Ladies' Auxiliary.

These people represent the collective interest of the whole community and accept responsibilities which are real and demanding, for it is their duty to ensure the best quality health care while at the same time keeping within a controlled operating budget.

The Board of Directors delegates responsibility for the actual operation of the hospital to the Administrator Donald E. Ross and delegates to the Medical Staff the medical care within the hospital, but each Board member is kept well-
