HOLY ANGELS GR. 3 CLASS CELEBRATE ADVENT

The Grade 3 Class of Holy Angels School had an Advent celebration. It was just like at Church. We had all the parents come and some other people we know. They were Mrs. Hanley, Mr. Kutcher, Father Bartofski and many grandparents.

We had this Mass to prepare for the coming of Jesus. We made invitations for our mothers, fathers and grandparents. Our Teacher asked all the other people. We even had two Altar Boys, Donald Borutski and Deryk LeBlanc. It was lots of fun. We had a Jesse tree that we decorated during the Mass. We had Communion and sang hymns.

Thank you to everyone who helped.

RECREATION DEPT. WEEKLY REPORT

JUNIOR BOWLING:

Junior Bowling will resume for its last two weeks starting on Sunday, January 14th, at 2 p.m. for the Junior Group and 3:30 p.m. for the senior group. This programme could be carried on if there is enough interest shown by the parents and children by contacting the Recreation Office or the person in charge of the programme, Tracey Stachiw.

JUNIOR GYMNASTICS:

Junior girls and Junior boys gymnastics will begin in early February. Those who were registered in the last session will be given first chance to register in this session. All persons who have taken part in this programme recently will be notified of details.

DISCO AND MODERN DANCE CLINICS:

We are accepting names for both these programmes. We hope these programmes will operate in early February and each programme will be on a separate weekend. Anyone interested in either of these courses should contact the Recreation Office at 3542 and leave their names.

MEN'S BASKETBALL:

At the time of printing, we did not have confirmation of the High School gym but hope men's Basketball will begin on Wednesday, January 10th, from 8 to 10:30 p.m. in the High School gym. Any men wishing to play Basketball are welcome and at this time there is no cost for the programme.

YOGA:

We still need a few more participants to ensure the success of this programme. We are hoping to operate it on Monday nights for 14 weeks. For full details on the programme, please contact the Recreation Office. The instructor will be Linda Ditchfield of Terrace Bay.
