It is possible for public tours to take place of the Recreation Complex at the Terrace Bay mill site. If you wish to see this complex, please notify the Recreation office. We would like at least 10 people to bring at one time.

FLORA BRYSON HONOURED FOR SERVICE:

Flora Bryson was presented a plaque on Monday, January 8th for her long service to recreation in Schreiber.

Flora was one of the original recreation committee members and when the committee was formed under by-law in April, 1968, she remained a member and took on chairperson duties during her tenure.

Lorraine Huard presented her the plaque and related that it and a thank you were not enough for her years of service and
