

FIGURE SKATING NEWS

On Saturday, January 20th, eighteen skaters representing the Terrace Bay Figure Skating Club travelled to Manitowadge to participate in the North Shore Inter-Club Competition. Other clubs attending the competitions were: Fort William, Nipigon, Port Arthur and the host club Manitowadge.

After leaving here in the early morning hours, the skaters arrived in Manitowadge to begin competing at 8:30 a.m. Local skaters successful in winning either a Silver, Gold or Bronze medal are as follows:

Martin Saranpaa, Bronze, Juvenile Men's Singles Division; Paula Bouchard, Bronze, Juvenile Ladies Singles; Tracy Clark and Paula Bouchard, Gold, Juvenile Ladies Dance Pairs; Eleanor Depoalo and Laurie Pollard, Silver, Juvenile Ladies Dance Pairs Cheryl Prill and Jennifer Kodila, Gold, Novice Ladies Dance Pairs; Darlene Woods, Bronze Intermediate Ladies Dance Solo; Carrie Pytyck, Bronze, Novice Ladies Singles.

The clubs competing score points during the event with the Nipigon club winning the trophy and Manitowadge and Terrace Bay placing second and third respectively.

All the skaters who took part are to be commended for their participation. Special congratulations to all the winners. The Mothers who took time and drive the skaters to this event are to be thanked most sincerely. Thanks also to our Professional Bunny Singleton for her participation and Moral support.

Test Day is this Saturday, January 27th at 1 p.m.

Fun Day Competition is to be held on February 19th. This is the event where all the skaters have an opportunity to compete and have fun.
