

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

FOR RELEASE FEB. 5th, 1979

Timmy, who has just turned three, is an engaging small fellow with blonde hair, blue eyes and fair skin.

Though his general health is good, he has cerebral palsy (lack of muscle control) and his development, both physically and mentally, is below average. He loves to climb but cannot walk yet without support, much preferring to crawl. He is having physiotherapy to strengthen his legs.

He chatters a lot, but has no recognizable words yet. He understands what is said to him, however.

Normally happy and contented, Timmy has a determined streak, a good quality for a handicapped child.

Timmy needs a mother and father who can welcome him with his problems, who realize his limitations but will help him to progress as far as he can. He will benefit from having other children in his adopting family.

To inquire about adopting Timmy, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. In your letter tell something of your present family and your way of life.
