EX 936 THE LAW AND YOU

(Section 99)

The course will attempt to familiarize the student with the legal system within which we live in Canada. It will assist in an understanding of how the law operates to resolve conflicts in our society in some of the following areas:

- 1) Criminal Law
- 2) Landlord & Tenant Disputes
- 3) Family Related Problems
- 4) Wills & Estates

The aim of the course is to educate you through lectures and discussion to an awareness of the network of laws which govern our choices of behavior, and to advise you of some of your rights and responsibilities under the Canadian legal system.

This is not a credit program.
