

Bob Rae and Jack Stokes tour the Mill in Terrace Bay.

Hockey Highlights

Atoms

Three games: Manitowadge 2, Marathon 4, Schreiber 6 - Terrace 7, 4, and 3 respectively. Ricky Pollard was very sharp in goal, while Michael Duhaime and Dale Wilson scored most goals.

Pee Wees

Three games: Manitowadge 1, Marathon 1, Schreiber 2 - Terrace 7, 6 and 2. Jody Waldenberger and David Scollard gave their best, doing well to limit Schreiber to 2 goals. Richard Brassard and Tim Hanley scored several timely goals while Derek Boucher, Joe Davis, Shane Harper, David Heinrich and David Lalonde played their best for this season.

Bantams

Three games: Manitowadge 0, Marathon 3, Schreiber 3 - Terrace 3, 2, and 3. Improvement in the team's play was marked by three players scoring for the first time — Owen McCullough, Scott Mauger, and Bruce Nugent. One father paid several dollars in reward money.

Midgets

Two games: Marathon 7, Schreiber 2 - Terrace 2 and 7. Jamie Figliomeni scored six times and assisted on three others while Andre Theriault was strong in the nets especially in the team's strong effort against Schreiber who had defeated Marathon.

Rosspport Notes

by ANNE TODESCO

Mrs. Ida Cliff and sister Miss Mary McEwen of Thunder Bay visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schelling during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. R. Douglas of Sioux Narrows visited his sister Mrs. Anne Todesco when enroute to spend the holiday season with his daughter Laurie and family in Georgetown, Ont.

Mrs. Bill Hubelit, Mrs. Anne Todesco and Mrs. Patsey Campbell were business visitors to the Lakehead this week.

Josephine and Ray Kenney left Thursday to spend the Christmas season with his 96 year old mother at Elgin Ontario and other relatives. Early in the New Year they will continue on to Brownsville, Texas to spend the winter.

The big fish are still here. We heard that Charles Dalhgren from West Point, Iowa won an award for the large pike he caught here in August. The Molson award was given for his 18 pound pike.

R.T. Kenney's party of moose hunters from Toronto, Lynden, and Nanticoke, Ontario went home with three moose this season from the islands in the bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Mushqush, Hilton and Rocey have left to spend the holiday weekend with their daughter Joyce Lanigan and family at Nipigon.

Mrs. Laura Legault and infant son have returned from McCausland hospital.
