re: London Trip

"Mr. Fraser, I can't find my passport!"

"Oh no! I just went through the x-ray machine, and I forgot to take my film out of my suitcase!"

"You think you have problems! I just found a bottle of shampoo spilled all over my clothes!"

While you are reading this paper, you can be guaranteed that the preceding expressions have all been said by some of the students who have just travelled to London, England.

On March 25th, a group of students from the high school left by train for Toronto. On Sunday, the group departed Toronto and they flew to London, England. The group has been busy preparing for this trip since November. A half-day tour of the city of London has been planned for the first day, and on the second day, the group will have a tour of Windsor Castle. The group then has the rest of the time to sight-see and experience the day-to-day living habits of the English.

Mr. Larry Fraser (chaperone), Mrs. Pat Slawson, Chris Reid, Bryan Whitney, Brent Bertin, Karen Cockerline, Jeff Hansen, Cheryl Smith, Kelly McGuire, Judy McBride, Mike Barry, and Velvet Moore, compose the group of travellers. A request to the Board of Education has been sent in to ask that Mr. Fraser be granted an extra week for his March Break just so that he can recuperate from this trip.

Just kidding, Mr. Fraser. Happy Holidays.
