The first annual Tiny Tournament was held in Schreiber last week. Schreiber's Recreation Director Kevin Duguay said that, "the first rule of the Tournament was that everyone must have fun. Each team played two games. Each of the games had three 16 minute periods."

Response to the Tournament from the players, parents and spectators has been enthusiastic. The teams were classified as Pre-Atom and were made up of players aged six to eight, although some of the out of town teams had players as young as five years old on the ice.

"Every player received a medal", said Duguay. "The concept was that everybody would be a winner regardless of how the team played." "We presented the medals to all the players and at the conclusion of each game we presented the 'hardest working player award'. There were eight of these awards."

"The kids had a lot of fun. We had a good crowd. I was impressed with the numbers that were there. The crowd was very supportive." "The kids themselves had a great time. You could see it in their eyes. For many of them it was probably the first medal in their lives."

About fifty players

participated in the Tournament with teams from Red Rock, Nipigon, Schreiber and Terrace Bay. "The idea for the Tournament originated with Don Figliomeni, the President of Schreiber Minor Hockey and it was put together by Myles Fournier." "It was intended to teach the players to win with some class."

Be Cool, Not Cocky

The same scientists who found that cooling the heads of chickens causes them to lay more eggs, now says that keeping a cool head in times of stress is important for roosters as well. The roosters produce more sperm if kept cool, which should result in a significant increase in production and lowering of food costs. That should make any wise consumer crow.
