

Terrace Bay Recreation News

A Weekend of Broomball:

This weekend April 9th and 10th, eleven teams (4 Ladies and 7 Mens) will be participating in the Double Elimination Tournament. This will be the first Broomball Tournament of the season and will climax an excellent year for the participants of the new sport.

Participating communities include Marathon, Geraldton, Longlac, Manitouwadge and Terrace Bay.

The Tournament will begin at 9:00 a.m. Saturday with Longlac Men vs Terrace Bay Boiler House. The remaining schedule for the first round is as follows:

10:00 a.m. - Men's - Geraldton vs Terrace Bay Jean's Saw Sales, 11:00 a.m. - Ladies - Geraldton Roswell Htl. vs Terrace Bay Selects, 1:00 p.m. - Men's - Marathon vs Terrace Bay Stampeders, 2:00 p.m. - Ladies - Geraldton Bernard Bakery vs Terrace Bay Costa's, 3:00 p.m. - Men's - Manitouwadge meets winner of 1:00 p.m. Game.

Games continue Saturday until 7:00 p.m. and begin on Sunday at 10:00 a.m. All Awards will be presented Sunday at 2:00 p.m. See you at the Terrace Bay Recreation Centre Arena.

Flea Market:

Don't hesitate! Tables are going very quickly for the 1st Annual Gigantic Flea Market scheduled for May 14th at 1:00 p.m. Tables and space to sell your items will cost $5.00. Space size is 8' x 8'. Deadline to reserve a space is May 6th. Remember the flea market is not a fair. Flea Markets are also called Yard Sales, Garage Sales, Basement Sale. This will not be an outlet to sell crafts etc. Our Fall Fair is scheduled for September 11th and we are also accepting names for this event as well. Table space remains at $5.00.

Mixed Aerobic exercises:

We still have openings in the upcoming session of Mixed Aerobic Exercises. Classes are Monday 8:30 - 9:30 p.m. and Wednesday 7:30 - 8:30 p.m. and begin Monday April 11th. Registration deadline is today Wednesday April 6th. Please come to the recreation office and register to ensure your spot in this popular activity.

Oil Painting & Drawing Workshop:

This oil painting and drawing week-end workshop includes individual instruction for beginner and advanced. Friday evening will be spent learning how to use paints, drawing, loosening up, and composing. Saturday we will be outdoors if possible working on one or two paintings which will allow the application of the techniques presented on Friday evening. Included in fee are one board, paper, paints and use of brushes. This workshop will be held Friday May 6th from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m. and Saturday May 7th from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., in the multi-purpose room of the recreation centre. Please call the registration office at 3542 to obtain more information and register. Deadline to register is April 29th.

Investment management:

Anyone interested in a 6 week program to cover the topic of investment management, please call and leave your name at the recreation office. Anil Kripilani will instruct this course. Course will begin as soon as we receive the minimum registration of 10.

Mixed Volleyball:

This activity takes place at St. Martin School Gymn every Wednesday from 8:30 to 10:00 p.m., and is open to any interested adult. Please call the recreation office if you require more information. There is no charge to participate.

March Break Activities:

We hope that the students of the schools enjoyed the variety of activities we arranged for their enjoyment during the March Break. The Novelty Bowling, Treasure Hunt, Pac Man and Frogger were the most popular events of the week. The winner from St. Martin School in Pac Man was Linda Gerlach and Shaune Morrisseau won the Frogger contest. The winner from the High School and the Public School for Pac Man was John Gosselin and for the Frogger contest it was Warren Sutherland who won. We thank all the youngsters for participating in the activities and urge them to watch for other events in the future.

Slow Pitch Baseball:

There will be an open general meeting on April 20th at 7:00 p.m. in the Conference Room for any adult 18 years of age or older who wishes to enter a Slow Pitch League or participate. Rules and other matters will be discussed at this meeting.

Great Beginnings: Appetizer and Food Processor Cookery:

Expand your appetizers to main dishes and shorten your work time with a food processor. Recipes can be prepared with or without a food processor. Enjoy a wide variety of dishes including chocolate mousse, carrot vichyssoise, puff pastry, escargot pate, and cheese appetizers. Many tips for quick desserts will be presented as well as handy hints for food processor cookery. The above description is a detailed information on one of three cookery courses to be held the weekend of the 29th and 30th of April. For more information contact the recreation office.

Vegetable Bounty:

From appetizers to desserts, vegetable cookery will stretch your food dollar, add valuable nutrients and perk up your everyday fare. Pasta Primavera, cakes, vegetable soups, pates and many other varied vegetable dishes will be prepared. Join us for this interesting workshop. This cooking spree will be held on April 29th and 30th.

Fine Finales: Desserts for Chocolate Lovers:

For those who yearn for a taste of chocolate - learn to prepare a host of elegant desserts as the final touch to your meals. Join us and sample some lovely desserts featuring truffled pears, chocolate sea shells, white chocolate mousse in chocolate cups, cherry meringue shortcakes, sweet pastry, and flambeed strawberry dessert. Also learn to make white and dark moulded chocolates. Some moulds and chocolate in bulk will be available for purchase after the workshop. This course will be held on Saturday April 30, from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m.
