Mike Souliere is home for a visit to his parents. Mike comes from Calgary. Miss Darlene Miller is visiting relations and friends. She is from Kitchener. Welcome back from hospital to Marg Spillane.

Get well to Charlie Holmes, Irene Moorey, W. Paradis, Myra Smilsky, Neldine Mikus and Mr. Smart in hospital.

Our deepest sympathies to the Lawsons on the passing of Mrs. Lawson who was 92 years old.

The Women's Institute penny auction will be postponed to a later date. Approximately eight members from "Tops" attended the weekend Annual Rally in Thunder Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Andrews are back from their trip to Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott are back from their vacation to many points. Mr. and Mrs. Mullins arrived back from their vacation. Get well to George Walsh in hospital in London, Ontario.

The Figure Skating Bingo will continue all summer in the Town Hall every Tuesday. Rev. Father Delaney and Mrs. Delaney and Judy Cooper were delegates from St. John's Church to the Synod of the Diocese of Algoma in Sault Ste. Marie. A new bishop was elected at the Synod. He is Father Les Peterson from Parry Sound. The new bishop will be consecrated in Sault Ste. Marie.

Provincial Parks

Neys and Rainbow Falls Provincial Parks will both officially open on June 3, 1983. Prior to this date, both parks will remain closed to vehicle traffic. Walk-in camping and day use opportunities remain available.

Rosspoint Provincial Campground is open for free camping and day use, but will not offer any facilities or services. White Lake Provincial Park expects to be open and provide basic services at reduced rates as of May 20. If services are not available, free use will be permitted.

Most provincial parks in this area will operate on these reduced rates until June 17, when full rates will apply.
