

Schreiber fight card a success

Schreiber's first boxing card was a major success!

A packed arena watched the hometown boys brawl their way to win the majority of bouts. Schreiber's big Stan Nesbitt in his second time out destroyed Hearst's touch heavyweight Mark Richard. The veteran Hearst boxer took two standing eight counts after a barrage of Nesbitt punches and the referee was forced to stop the bout. In a rough and tumble match Jamie Mackenzie of Schreiber and Hearst middleweight Rolland Roucelle slugged it out for three rounds with Mackenzie getting the decision. The most outstanding boxer of the tournament was Schreiber's Gerry Filane as he continually rocked Thunder Bay's Arthur Esquiga and the referee wisely stopped the match giving Filane the victory.

Nipigon's Bob Bearman did his community proud and had the eye of the tiger as he out-fought undefeated Hearst heavyweight Henry Gagnon. Gagnon is a known fierce competitor and vows revenge in an eagerly expected future rematch. Schreiber's Rocky, Billy Mackenzie, with only 4 fights behind him, took on Thunder Bay's veteran Chuch Major with 170 plus fights and fought him to a draw, to make his match the most outstanding of the night.

Schreiber's "Marvelous" Mario Vasiliu fought a tough, grueling bout, but lost a very close split decision to experienced Thunder Bay's Russ "Hollywood" Crossley. In only four months in boxing Mario displayed excellent boxing skills and earned the special award for the most improved boxer.

John Carangi fought Marty Rageliak from Thunder Bay. John fought in his first fight with a sore hand and was doing well until a bleeding nose forced the fight to be stopped by ring doctor Dr. Mc-Ausland. The Thunder Bay fighter got the nod.

Ring girls Diane Vasiliu, Candance Campbell and Pam Vasiliu were the card girls and I am sure everyone will agree that they had the tools to do the job well and did.

The whole affair was a major success and the Schreiber club looks forward to holding another match in the near future.

The Schreiber Boxing Club now travels to Sault Ste. Marie to challenge that veteran club, residing there.

The Schreiber Club encourages anyone wishing to box to come forward and try it, or contact Kevin Cocks 824-2107.
