

Birchwood Briefs

It has been quite a while since pen was put to paper on our many happenings at Birchwood. It has been a glad year but also a sad one.

We said goodbye to 10 of our residents who had made Birchwood home, for many years. Their varied personalities and faces are sadly missed and their passing has left quite a gap in our lives. Eva Dolter - Clem Downey - Larry Stolarchux - Jum Trabish - Sam Kozio - Andrew Timko - Joham Monsson - Cecille Bouchard - Mary Bell (Pinewood) and last week, Adele Montey.

The fantastic summer we all enjoyed, with outings, every week picnics, Bar-B-Q's from Neys Park to Rossport and all the little parks and lakes in between. A summer to remember - socks and shoes off, wading in Lake Superior.

We celebrated each month the birthdays - always a lovely cake from the kitchen, beautifully decorated. We made our own banana splits and sundaes and gifts from our Ladies Auxiliary.

We had a presentation of trophies for our Under 100 Bowling League. The picture showing the trophies won, were donated, and Stew and Marion Reid gave time and talents and engraved the trophies for us as a gift to Birchwood. We thank them very much for making it possible, as our budget this year has been rather tight and the extras that mean so much, such as the trophies, would not have been possible. So a big thank you to everyone who made this event possible.

The greenhouse and garden did well. The grounds have never looked so pretty. Our new resident, Michael, kept the lawns looking good with Stewart Anderson and Werner Zeigler manning the hoses which was a valuable and time consuming job. We had 60 lbs. of tomatoes, sold boxes of plants with the help and guidance of Flora Bryson and John Steen, seeding planting and potting and replanting. We had so many toma-
