

15th World Scout Jamboree - "The Spirit Lives On"

Michel Deschamps Jr. at the World Jamboree.

July 1st, 1983 was the long awaited day for me; after months of letters, phone calls and preparation. At 12:45 p.m., the Mississauga Troup, consisting of 32 boys and seven leaders from Sudbury, Sault Ste. Marie Region, arrived in a convoy of two vans and two trucks to pick me up. After a lunch break, hosted by my parents, we set off for Kananaskis Country, Alberta (55 miles west of Calgary and 25 miles east of Banff). We arrived on Monday, July 4th. Opening day, Wednesday, July 6th, was a total disaster, "weather wise", as we had a torrential down pour. The 14,000 teenagers from 106 nations were soaked in the heavy rain storm. Almost all of the Scouts were determined to stay in parade uniforms to see Governor General Edward Schreyer; Premier Peter Lougheed; and Boy Scout Founder, Lord Baden Powell's grandson. After the ceremony was over, the rain stopped and the Irish Rovers entertained us. One quarter of the teenagers scrambled for dry clothes, blankets and sleeping bags provided by Alberta Disaster Services. continued on page 15

The Mississauga Troup were indeed a hungry group and they are seen here on Deschamps side yard satisfying their hunger.
