St. Berchmen's Altar Society

by ANNE TODESCO

A successful tea and bazaar was sponsored by the St. Berchmens Altar Society on Saturday, December 10th, in the community hall in Rossport. It was convened by Mrs. Doris Legault.

Working on the Novelty and White Elephant booths, were Mrs. Prina Gerow and Mrs. Freda Gerow. Miss Beverly Legault and her Girl Guide troop were in charge of the kitchen and for serving tea.

Mrs. Mary Schelling and Mrs. Josephine Hubelit presided at the tea equipages from a table attractively decorated with the Christmas theme. The lace covered table was centered with a Holly decorated crystal bowl, red candies in crystal sconces.

Mrs. Hilda Mushqush circulated the tickets on the grocery hamper which is to be drawn for on Thursday evening. Mrs. Anne Todesco took the tea money while Mrs. Laura Legault was in charge of the cake walk which caused much merriment and was very popular. The door prize was captured by Alana Harper of Terrace Bay.

Several people attended from Schreiber, Terrace Bay, Pays Plat and Nipigon.

Rossport Notes

by ANNE TODESCO

The Rossport Community Hall Committee is busy planning and making preparations for the annual New Year's Eve party and dance.

Miss Lorraine Sepala is visiting her mother, Mrs. Esther Sepala in Thunder Bay.

Ned Basher, owner of the Rossport Inn has returned to Duluth for the winter.

Mrs. Anne Todesco is holidaying with her daughter Camilla this Christmas in Toronto, and son Jack of Sarnia.

The children of the village are practicing for a Christmas concert under the direction of Cathy Gerow. They have a dialogue or short play entitled, "Wanted, a Housekeeper"; carol singing and other skits. Micheal Gerow will be the pianist for the entertainment. Santa will be distributing candy and oranges and gifts to the children of the village. Refreshments will be served at the party.
