Schreiber W.I. by: Anne Todesco

The Schreiber Women's Institute organization met at the town hall for the regular monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. The president Mrs. Dora Weaver chaired the meeting and welcomed the members.

Following the reciting of the W.I. Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect, Mrs. Mavis Slater presented the thought for the day - "Do good to all as we have the opportunity to do."

Roll call was responded to relating their plans for the holiday season and an exchange of Christmas cookies. The Motto for the month was given by Mrs. Patsey Campbell - "That kindness is a virtue that shows a beam of sunshine to everyone at Christmas Time."

The current events period had many news items for discussion. Among them were the safe landing of the Columbia shuttle and crew; the promised crack-down of holiday drunk drivers; the disarmament study; Mrs. Walesa accepting the Nobel Peace Prize for 1983 on behalf of her husband; the death of "Charlie Brown" who the comic strip 'Peanuts' was based on; laws to curb obscene literature; errors in the computer system; Prime Minister Trudeau's peace mission and many other items of the news media.

The minutes of the previous meeting and the financial report were passed and adopted. Outstanding accounts were moved for payment and the card secretary reported nine cards mailed the past month.

Under new business a discussion was held by the members pertaining to the T.V. advertisements of women's intimate health aids. It was unanimously agreed that a resolution pertaining to this embarrassing advertisement be sent to the district level to have this sort of advertisement withdrawn from the networks.

The members decided to purchase a Kinnette Calendar with date and times of our meetings on it; also that a new teapot be bought for the club. The Organization decided to adopt the method of mailing cards to an unknown friend as a pal, offering kind thought and wishes on birthdays and anniversaries.

Four convenor papers were heard owing to a backlog of them due to illness or the cancelling of a meeting. Mrs. Mavis Slater, convenor of Agriculture and Canadian Industries chose for her subject, the "Pesticide Industry" and the use of the chemicals on plants, insects and weeds; also the use of computer forces in the growing of roses.

Mrs. Harness, convenor of Citizenship and World Affairs, reported on the rate of the inflow of immigrants to Canada and the expelling of the Libyan and Cubans from Grenada; the lifting of the ban on Soviet flights; and Margaret Thatcher's visit to Canada.

Mrs. Nieme, convenor of Family and Consumer Affairs, stated that all should be aware of frauds and professional con-artists and suggested certain rules to follow. Her paper also related to the results of the use of drugs, cigarettes, coffee, aspirins, that causes lung and heart diseases, cancers, strokes, etc., and how people absorb most of the caffeine from coffee, pop and chocolate.

Mrs. Todesco, convenor of Education and Cultural Affairs, spoke on the importance of obtaining as much education as possible as we will depend on it in the upcoming years. Grants and bursaries are offered for the financing of further education. Education today may be defined as a set of processes designed to transmit knowledge, skills and to develop our mental abilities. It is known that developing nations advance through education. Many educational institutions are available today for advancement in education.

There are the schools, colleges, universities, libraries, publishing houses, operas, etc.

Following adjournment and the singing of God Save the Queen, a coffee break was held. The members then went to the Voyageur Restaurant for the annual Turkey Banquet after which they adjourned to the Chimo Club Room for an evening of fun and carol singing. Cookies and tea were served.
