Sports — Bantam Hockey Report

by CLAUDIO COMMISSO

In the first game, Schreiber started off on a low key, losing 7-0 to a very strong team in Kapaskasing (who later went on to win the tournament).

Schreiber's second game vs. Marathon turned out to be a very exciting and tightly played first two periods, ending in a 2-2 tie. Scoring for Schreiber was Cory Huard and Terry Filane.

As the third period progressed, Marathon slipped two unanswered goals to go ahead 4-2, but at 7:45 in the third period, Schreiber got one back to come within one of Marathon, but it wasn't to be. Schreiber was issued their second loss 4-3 Marathon.

On Sunday, Schreiber's third and last game vs. White River, Schreiber's third and last game vs. White River, Schreiber struck first at 10:55 on a great solo end-to-end rush by Darren Dooley.

During play in the second period, Frank Commisso scored his first and second goals of the game to pull ahead of White River 3-0.

Early in the third period, White River got one back but it was not enough as Coe Commisso and Terry Filane "iced the cake" for Schreiber. The game ended 5 for Schreiber and 1 for White River. Coe Commisso (r.w.); Peter Speziale (goalie); and Shane Duffy (goalie); were picked as Schreiber's Most Valuable Players of the Manitouwadge tournament by Kevin Duguay. Congratulations guys!

Wobbly Ball ???

On February 4 and 5 at the Schreiber Campus of Lake Superior, the Schreiber Volleyball Club will be hosting "The Goon Platoon Mixed Volleyball Tournament." This will be the first mixed volleyball tournament to be held in Northwestern Ontario. Most tournaments separate the men from the women in the North, however mixed tournaments are very popular in the rest of Ontario.

Three teams have entered from Thunder Bay including Superior West, formerly a Men's team who won the annual Geraldton tournament in 1982. Schreiber will attempt to keep the prize money at home with three teams entered and Terrace Bay players have combined to form one team.

Spectators are welcome to watch the exciting matches and support the local teams from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Saturday and 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Sunday.

Everyone is also welcome to party at the Wobbly Ball Blowout (dance) at the Schreiber Recreation Centre from 8:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 4. Music will be provided by Pat Tees and Age of Majority cards are required.
