Programs

Due to lack of registration, Personal Money Management will be postponed until a later date. If you are interested in signing up, please call or drop into the Recreation Office, 825-3542.

Dance Lessons for Adults

We have received requests for lessons in Folk or Ballroom Dancing, and also for Classical or Jive Dance. Are there any other people interested in a course of this nature? It could be fun and would be good exercise. Please call the Recreation Office, 825-3542, if you are interested in teaching one of these classes, or are interested in participating.

Seniors' "Card Sunday"

This event is of interest to Senior Citizens. Card Sunday would consist of a few hours playing various card games, followed by a Pot Luck supper. Admission is a Pot Luck Dish. If you would be interested in attending, please call Joan Rogerson at Birchwood Terrace, or leave your name at the Recreation Office. This program will begin the first week in March.

Bridge Clinic

Would you like to learn about the game of Bridge? If so, we are hoping to offer a clinic in the near future. This clinic would be for the active player, the beginner, or those just interested in learning how to play. Please call the Recreation Office at 825-3542 and leave your name.

Upcoming Arena Events

February 11 and 12: Kinsmen Karibou Carnival
February 18 and 19: Intermediate Hockey Tournament
February 25 and 26: North Shore Recreation Director's Fun Pee Wee Hockey Jamboree.

Upcoming Programs: Kids Easter Crafts (Donna Mikeluk)

This course will be held on Friday, April 13 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. It will be held in the Conference Room of the Terrace Bay Recreation Centre. Children of the ages 7 to 12 are eligible. In this workshop, a variety of Easter crafts will be explored, including printmaking, weaving, collage, and egg painting. Please bring some hard boiled eggs with you.

There are still openings in the following programs starting soon: Piano Lessons

This is an introduction to reading and piano playing for ages 6 and up. You should have access to a piano for practising between classes. This course will start on Saturday, February 18, and finish on April 7. The course will be held at 7 Terrace heights Drive from 11 to 11:45 a.m. and from 12 to 12:45 p.m.

Racquetball Instruction (Bill McDougall) for ages 5 to 14

Basic instruction and rules of the game of Racquetball for the beginner. This course will start on Thursday, February 9 and finish on Thursday, March 1. There will be one hour sessions on these days. The first group will start at 4:00 p.m. and the second group will start at 6:00 p.m. Please ensure that your youngster has non-marking footwear and appropriate court wear for this program.

Upholstery (Phyllis Caranci)

Learn how to upholster your own furniture. For this beginner's course, the largest item allowed will be an easy chair. This course will be held on Mondays and Wednesdays from February 14 to March 14 in the Multi-purpose Room of the Terrace Bay Recreation Centre from 7-10 p.m.

Woodworking for Beginners (Irwin Hegedus)

This is a course to teach the beginner how to safely handle wood-working tools and complete a project. The project must be decided on and approved by the instructor before the course begins. The dates and times for this course are Thursday and Friday, February 16 and 17, from 7-10 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday, February 18 and 19, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, and 1-4 p.m. at the Lake Superior High School.

Instructor for Guitar Lessons

We are currently looking for an instructor for beginner Guitar Lessons. All of our instructors are paid $15.00 per hour of class instruction. We would be looking at starting this program next fall. Please call if you would like to instruct this course.

The Parent-Coach Relationships

- A checklist may help!

by TIM ROBINSON

Due to the money and time committed, it is reasonable that most parents will demand input into the hockey environment that their children will encounter. The individual most visibly connected with whether or not a child receives a truly positive and meaningful experience is the coach. What most parents (and coaches for that matter) do not realize is that the type of relationship that exists between the coach and parent has serious implications in terms of the type of experiences that athletes will derive from their involvement. The following checklist has been developed for parents who are interested in improved Coach-Parent relations:

Checklist Part A

PARENTS: did you meet with the coach, individually, to discuss:

- (a) medical/physical considerations (i.e., allergies, development problems)?
- (b) social considerations (i.e., unusual attitudes or behaviours, shyness)?
- (c) your perception of their motives for participating in hockey (i.e., to learn to skate better, to be involved with their friends)?

2. Questions you may have concerning

- (a) objectives of the league and/or team (i.e., importance of winning vs. importance of individual improvement).
- (b) an opportunity for your child to receive equal ice time.
- (c) team regulations and rules. For example:

- time regulations to be at the rink for games and practices,
  - dressing time deadlines before games
  - behaviour regulations in dressing room, on bench ... etc.
  - conduct in practice.
- (d) method of instruction to be employed in practice.

3. As a parent, are you ready to acknowledge that the coach is the "leader"? If so, be prepared to demonstrate your support for him/her to your child at all times.

The coach's responsibility to this relationship is vitally important as well. Therefore, parents should expect league officials to ensure that the following activities are being carried out by the coaches.

Part B HAVE COACHES take the time to:

1. organize a formal meeting with you (the parents) to discuss:
    - (a) the objectives/goals of the league (i.e. "winning" vs. "participation")?
    - (b) his/her coaching philosophy that will be used in games, practices and when dealing with the players?
  2. Outline to the parents the type of player behaviour that will be reinforced (i.e., effort rather than performance, controlled temper, team play)?
  3. Define the parent behaviour they would expect (i.e., not to be yelling instructions or criticisms at the players or coach during the game, showing disrespect for the officials)?
- N.B. It is recommended that parents who have instructions/ideas for the coach do so in an informal meeting away from the players. In this way, the coach is not in the position to be "second-guessed" by his players, thereby retaining the player's respect that is so valuable to successful leadership.

4. Acknowledge the technical expertise that a particular parent may have (i.e., parents who have had previous coaching experience may be able to assist coaches in practice).

Misunderstanding between parents and coaches is usually the result of inadequate communication between the two groups. I am convinced that if both parents and coaches take the necessary time to deal positively with the concerns outlined in the above checklist, a clarification of roles and expectations will result. By being supportive, honest and open with your child's coach, your relationship will likely improve.

Schreiber Bantam Hockey Report -

"Bantams vs. Executive"

The Schreiber Bantam Kings and the Schreiber Minor Hockey Executive met head to head in the Annual Bantams vs. Executive Hockey Game on Wednesday, February 1, 1984. This exhibition hockey was in recognition of the National Minor Hockey Player Week. "Minor Hockey is for the Player".

Starring for the Executive were Shannon Riley, Dom Figliomeni, "Hunts" Mc-

Parland, Kenton Klansen, Cos Filane, Kevin Duguay and the second line of the Bantam Kings. Approximately 45 fans enjoyed a closely contested fun hockey game.

Stay tuned for a rematch!

Pee Wee Hockey Jamboree

The Jamboree will be well attended this year, with 9 communities participating. We have one problem: homes for billets!!!

Homes are required for Friday, February 24 and Saturday, February

25. The majority of meals are covered, therefore the host would be required to provide breakfast on Saturday and Sunday only.

If you can assist, it would be appreciated. Call Ted Wilson at 825-3672, or Barry Harper at 825-3384, or drop by the Recreation Office to fill out a Billet form. We need the community's assistance to billet approximately 175 young stars between the ages of 11 and 12.

Terrace Bay Minor Hockey Report

North Shore Action

The Atoms played Schreiber and Manitowadge in Schreiber on Saturday, Jan. 21 and despite a strong effort, came away losers in both games. Marathon was unable to make the trip because of the weather. Their games will be rescheduled. Because of a protest filed by the T.B.M.H.A. the North Shore Minor Hockey League has reversed its earlier decision to forfeit Terrace Bay's missed games in Manitowadge in December. These games will also be rescheduled.

The league-leading Pee Wees played their third North Shore weekend in Schreiber on Jan.

28-29 and secured their hold on first place by soundly defeating their three N.S. rivals.

Upcoming North Shore action

Pee Wees - Terrace Bay - Feb. 10, 11 and 12
Bantams - Manitowadge - Feb. 18, 19 and Schreiber Feb. 25-26
Midgets - Marathon - Feb. 25-26

Invitational Tournaments

The second annual Terrace Bay Midget Invitational Tournament was played on the weekend of Jan. 21-22 with six teams competing. Red Rock won the tournament and the "Chic" Thompson '77 Midgets Trophy by defeating Hornepayne 9-3 in the championship game. In the consolation final the Thunder Bay Junior Star Rangers defeated Schreiber by a score of 7-4. By all reports the tournament was a great success and a number of the teams are looking ahead to returning next year. Special thanks to Jim Figliomeni and his tournament organizers and to those people who acted as referees, minor officials, sold tickets, made the programme and posters and helped in any way. Without this kind of assistance the tournament would not have been possible.
