Letters to the editor

Praise for Town Crew

Dear Editor:

Once again your "Opinion" column has infuriated me, this time to the point that I feel I must respond.

Your editorial assistant is not the only one who has large amounts of snow on her lawn. As an occupant of a large corner lot, the snow is 3 times higher than I. However, the town crew has to put it somewhere when they are out at 4 a.m., to enable the mill workers to navigate the streets to get to work.

High snowbanks are not exclusive to Terrace Bay alone; every municipality in Northwestern Ontario has the same problem.

Apologies are not necessary to zipping snowmobilers, who seem to regard our streets as their own private dragstrips. Caution and common sense for car drivers should be a prerequisite at this time of year to avoid accidents of all types.

This town has a very efficient and dedicated public works department, and I take exception to the fact that she implies otherwise. Winter and summer, they strive to improve the appearance of Terrace Bay.

As for her giving up one garbage day per week; maybe she could, but others could not. They are too used to having construction material, ashes, dog droppings and other miscellaneous material picked up bi-weekly by part-time employees, who incidentally have nothing to do with snow removal. Other municipalities stipulate that household garbage must be just that - household garbage. Spring cleanup here is a farce - every garbage day is spring clean-up.

Terrace Bay is lucky to have the high calibre of all town employees that it has. Other municipalities may not be as fortunate.

Thank you snow crew!

Dear Editor:

After our recent "thaw", I felt I should write to you to praise the hard work of Terrace Bay's snow removal crew and their foresight to push the slush out of the front of our driveways. I had been waiting in dread for the snow-plow to come by and was wondering how I would ever shovel the accumulated water-weighted snow from our driveway.

I too was having a difficult time shovelling snow over the ever increasing height of our snowbanks. And I too came home to see the banks had been cut back and the snow pushed back from the end of our driveway and onto our lawn. I said thank you!

Thank you that the ends of my snow banks were not so high.

Thank you that it was now easier to see when driving in and out of the driveway (which I normally do with extreme caution due to the winter hazard of pedestrians and snowmobiles).

Thank you snow crew for doing a job well done under conditions I do not envy.

Yours truly,
Heather Vandergraaf

One Man's OPINION

Dear Editor:

In response to a column in your last issue of the Terrace Bay Schreiber "NEWS"; I have been a plow operator in Terrace Bay for close on to thirty years and Service Foreman for K.C. for close to five years. So I know what I'm writing.

I take my hat off to the Town Crew for their efforts in snow removal in Terrace Bay, especially this winter with the amount of snow we've had. When you can see the pavement in mid-February, someone is sure doing their job and damn well.

As for being up to her knees in snow, I suggest she's lucky if I was to read garbage like that in the "NEWS" when I was operating, she'd be lucky to get over the snow bank with a step ladder the next storm.

I trust the Council and Roy will ignore her letter and keep up the good work that this town has enjoyed in past years.

Yours truly,
Murray (Slim) Dorman

Request help in re-uniting

Dear Editor:

I am trying to re-unite twin sisters who have been separated for more than 80 years and would be most grateful if you would make their story public.

Eliza (on whose behalf I am working) and Harriet Flynn were born Aug. 1, 1901, in Hexham, England, to Dorothy Ann, wife of John Flynn, a plasterer.

Shortly after birth, Eliza was adopted privately.

Harriet and her mother came to Canada round about 1912. Eliza, who still lives in Hexham is very anxious to find her long-lost twin. Through research in the U.K. it has been established that the last news of Harriet occurred in 1953 when she was reported to be living in Toronto with her husband and three children, two boys and a girl.

Unfortunately there is no record of Harriet's husband's last name. It seems likely that Harriet and her mother may well have settled originally in the eastern provinces. The ladies have an older half-brother, Billy McGarity who is known to have worked for C.P. in the early 1930s.

If Harriet or her children recognize themselves from this outline or if any one else has information about Harriet and her family please write to: 14 Gertrude Place, Toronto, M4J 1R3.

Thank you.
Yours sincerely,
Juliet Mannoock
