

Ted and Czeslawa Jakubowski with daughter Caroline pause for a moment between batches of Hot Cross Buns. All are pleased with their new family business.

In case you haven't noticed, the Terrace Bay Bakery has new owners. The reason you may not have noticed is that the same quality baked goods are being produced, and there is a familiar face behind the counter.

Richard and Donna Wronowski and their boys have moved to Thunder Bay to operate the European Bakery on Simpson St. for Richard's father who is retiring. We wish them well.

The Terrace Bay Bakery is now owned and operated by the Jakubowski's. Czeslawa (pronounced Chestwa) has been working evenings at the Bakery for about 6 months and her husband Tadeusz, known as Ted was employed as an electrical engineer with Kimberly-Clark for almost three years.

The Jakubowski's are from Gdynia, Poland where Ted worked in a bakery for 5 years, went to University, then worked as an electrical engineer for 15 years. When asked why they chose to come to Canada, Ted replied, "It seemed to be the best democracy." They had only pamphlets and books to go by, but living in a democratic country was important to them and they both feel they made the right decision in choosing Canada.

They originally went to Quebec City and had to learn French but found it was not an industrial area in need of electrical engineers. Mississauga was their next stop where Ted learned English at a government sponsored course.

In 1981 the Jakubowski family moved to Terrace Bay and decided that this was the place to live. Both Czeslawa and Ted enjoy fishing in the summer and many winter activities but the greatest reason for staying here is "the people". Ted said it was difficult to describe how he feels about the people here. No adjective was good enough to describe the friendly people he has found here.

The children in the Jakubowski family have adapted to Terrace Bay very well. Kathy and Anna, both born in Poland are doing well in school. Little Caroline, born in Mississauga tells me she likes playing at the Bakery while the older girls help out.

Ted likes the idea of a family business even though the hours are long. It provides employment and a challenge for Czeslawa who was a teacher in Poland.

Ted gives much credit and thanks to his friend Richard, the former owner for sharing his recipes, and methods and for training him on Saturdays. His baking experience in Poland did not prepare him for things like "hot cross buns", this week's treat. It is Ted's plan to establish the business, then perhaps in a year or so to return to electrical engineering and hire full time staff for the bakery.

Since they will only have Sundays to enjoy their fishing this summer they will be joining countless others hoping for good weather on Sundays!

Northern Affairs

Promises $3 Million

Leo Bernier, Minister of Northern Affairs recently announced that his ministry will be providing funds in addition to those promised by the Ministry of Education to help small secondary schools acquire improved facilities in the areas of Technical and Home Economic studies, computers, art and music. The ministry will provide 90 per cent of the capital costs of such facilities. Three million dollars has been allocated for the programme over three years.

Mr. Bernier told "The House" "This programme recognizes the importance of improving the quality of education through improved facilities in ensuring the long term social and economic strength of our remote northern communities. With the Ministry of Education, we are helping to ensure that no secondary student in Northern Ontario is disadvantaged in terms of skills training or career goals simply because he or she happens to live in Northern, rather than Southern Ontario."

It's Gonna be a Party!

Yes folks, there's gonna be a party. A birthday party in celebration of Terrace Bay's 25th year. And it's gonna be a dandy.

The initial meeting of the Birthday Week Celebration Committee has already taken place, and things are starting to roll. Ollie Chapman is Chairman of the Committee and a large number (and good variety) of interested individuals are ready, willing and able to assist her in seeing that Terrace Bay is given one heck of a birthday party.

The celebration will commence on Friday, June 29th with a concert (from 8-9 p.m.) and a dance. The music will be provided by none other than YES! "The Carlton Showband"! It will also be the Official Opening of what will be the finest, the funnest, the busiest, and the best week-long celebration that Terrace Bay has ever had.

Most of what will follow is tentative, but measures are being taken for the events to take place as planned. These will include:

On Saturday, June 30th - a Parade, a Loggers Competition and an Open Street Dance for the entire family.

On Sunday, July 1st (Canada Day) - a Gold Tournament, a demonstration by the Dive Club, canoe races, a Town Bar-B-Q (picnic) sponsored by the U.P.I.U., a beer garden, a giant bonfire and to top it all off - a terrific fireworks display at the beach.

On Monday, July 2nd - a soap box derby, a 10-speed bike race, a puppet show... It's going to be called "Kids Day" and much, much more will be in store for them. It is also hoped that a "Meet and Mingle" Open House in the Curling Club Lounge can be organized.

Featured on the Tuesday will be the opening of an Arts and Crafts Show which will be run all week long.

On Wednesday, the Committee is looking at holding a Senior Citizens Day, complete with a bowling tournament and bingos. In the evening a Talent Show is being planned.

On Thursday, July 5th, the Official Taiwan Twinning Ceremonies and Levee will take place. Officials from the country of Taiwan will be present for the ceremonies and various presentations are in store. Reeve Speer will keep the Committee posted on further updates concerning the Twinning.

On Friday, July 6th there will be a Slow-Pitch Tournament; a possible birthday reunion dinner for persons born in Terrace Bay in 1959. It was suggested that this be a dinner with Council.

Saturday, July 7th will host the Closing Ceremonies and it is hoped that a live band can be located for a dinner and dance.

If you have any other suggestions or would like to assist the Committee in their endeavours, please contact Ollie Chapman at 825-3289. Make this birthday celebration one to remember Terrace Bay! We'll keep you posted on further Birthday Week Celebrations, as they are confirmed.
