

Ted Graham, owner, and employee Susan Glad (above) along with Althea Graham and Kristen Glad have created a new shopping environment in downtown Schreiber.

The Best What?

VIVIAN LUDINGTON
The Best Little Warehouse in town is in the heart of downtown Schreiber. If you've not heard that statement in the last month or so then you have not been to Granny's, a new store for health food or bulk buying.

The best thing about Granny's is that you can buy just exactly what you need, from one bag leaf to 50 lb. of flour or everything from soup to nuts. By the way, if you have any spice jars, save them to fill at Granny's for a lot less than it costs at the corner grocery.

THANK YOU

Sincere thanks to everyone who phoned, sent food and visited me during my stay in the hospital. Special thanks to Dr. Wilkes and all the nurses. A very special Thank You to my children, Julie, Chris, and Cindy.

Stella Speziale

Ted and Althea have some more great plans for the future of Schreiber, they are going to expand again and open 6 new apartments above Granny's. So the next time you are looking for a most unusual gift for someone with a sweet tooth and want variety, or the "basics" in bulk or small quantities, drop by Granny's Best of Scotia Street in Schreiber.

We have given a very special person to God!

RUTH PAGET

Funeral services were held at the Community Church on July 23, 1984 for our dearly loved wife, mother, grandmother and friend, Ruth Paget, who left us without warning on July 20, 1984.

The love and caring given to us during our time of sorrow was overwhelming. So, a BIG THANK YOU to everyone, who attended from near and far. Special thanks to those who were in a position to know our particular needs, and responded eagerly, especially Cora Ropchan who took charge immediately, the Rev. S. M. Lowry for the lovely service and for her attention to us before the final goodbye, Scott Chalmers who was most attentive to details at the Church, the pallbearers Don Beno, Graham Coe, Stan Hogkiss, Peter Gowen, M.O. Nelson, Brian Ramsay, the organist Ellen Hogkiss who wanted to play the organ for her lost friend, Betty Hahley who on short notice learned and practiced and gave a beautiful rendition, the Community Church Ladies Auxiliary who prepared the lunch and served, our friends at Costa's Foodmarket in particular Joe & Gina Comisso and Tony and Luigiana Costa who ensured food was abundant, Shirley & Dennis Rippengal & family who baked and babysat, Peter & Alice Gowen who also provided food and emotional support, Mrs. Dobush, Sylvia Stasula and so many others whose names escape us at this time.

Your very kind gestures will always be cherished.
