

Popular Kap businessman challenges in Cochrane-Superior

Guy Desjardins, a 36 year old Kapuskasing native is the Progressive Conservative candidate in the Cochrane-Superior Federal Riding. He and his wife Aline have two sons, 13 and 11 years old. The fluently bilingual Desjardins is a committed Northerner who has lived and worked in Hearst, Timmins and Kapuskasing and is aware of the North's unique needs and particular advantages.

The P.C. candidate notes his varied work experience which includes being an employee of Spruce Falls

Power and Paper Company, branch manager for the Canadian Acceptance Corporation, a summer tourist operator and owner-operator of a small business. "This experience," Guy says, "has given me an awareness of, and hands-on experience in, large industry, small business, tourism and finance."

With an active and committed background over a number of years in community service work, Guy Desjardins has been a member with executive position in a wide range of Kapuskasing and area organizations, including the Knights of Columbus, Kinsmen Club, Royal Canadian Legion, Curling Club, Chamber of Commerce and Downtown Business Association.

Heading the polls at the municipal election in 1982, Guy Desjardins became a member of Kapuskasing Town Council and has served as chairman of the Community and Social Services Committee; member of the Finance Committee; and Council representative on the Recreation Committee, Beautification Committee, North Cochrane District Family Services, Cochrane District Welfare Board, Porcupine Health Unit, Municipal-Educational Liaison Committee, Economic Development Committee and the North Clay Belt Development Association.

When asked for his views on the forthcoming federal election Guy Desjardins said, "September 4th will be an opportunity for the people of Cochrane-Superior to help elect a fresh new government with an active new member."
